

FROM ACCESS TO JUSTICE: HOW TO WORK WITH INTERPRETERS IN EDUCATIONAL SETTINGS

ABOUT THIS WORKSHOP

This workshop is designed to help educators, administrators, psychologists, specialists, pathologists, etc, ensure that language does not serve as a barrier to positive parent/family/community relationships or as a barrier to effective family engagement in special education settings.

Thursday, November 3, 2022
4-6 pm PST
over Zoom

$50 participant fee

<https://tinyurl.com/vd4pmjc5>

Register by Nov 1, 2022

PARTICIPANTS WILL

- Learn the interpreter role and best practices for working with interpreters in meetings.
- Understand interpreter ethics and how to support their role.
- How to create inclusive multilingual interactions beyond the interpreter.
- The difference between interpreters and bilingual employees.